Certificate of Compliance(COC) is valid for a period of 3 years from the current issue date. COC does not relieve the organization of the responsibility from maintaining continued conformity and effectiveness of the requirements of the management system standard and customer's contractual requirements. COC shall be valid subject to conducting the surveillance audits as per the surveillance audit programme specified in the initial certification assessment report. Integrated Quality Certification Private Limited shall issue a letter of continued compliance with the management system standard after completion of each surveillance audit as evidence of continued compliance to the requirements of specified management system standard and also update in the IQC website & accreditation body registry. If surveillance audits are not conducted, COC status shall be updated as suspended and/or withdrawn in IQC website and accreditation body registry accordingly. Written information on any significant organizational changes with impact on the COC shall be communicated to Integrated Quality Certification Private Limited without delay.
